NEW. BLUE. TRADITION.

Royals Create New Uniform Tradition for 2008

On Dec. 6, 2007, the Royals unveiled their eighth major uniform change in Club history and the look was very familiar to Royals fans. The new home alternate powder blue jersey was designed to both recognize the Club's history and winning tradition by reviving the powder blue color while also updating the style to represent the "new" Royals as an organization committed to building a model franchise in Kansas City. In addition, the uniform is designated for wear as a home alternate, bringing the Royals powder blue to Kauffman Stadium for the first time in team history.

Light blue road uniforms first entered the world of Major League Baseball when the Chicago Cubs wore a version for a single season in 1942. Powder Blue first appeared for the Royals as their road uniform in 1973. The color quickly became a trademark for the great Royals teams of the 1970s and 1980s.

The first version of the Royals powder blue, a V-neck pullover used from 1973-1982, was worn by the club during five playoff appearances and Kansas City's first World Series berth in 1980. The second version, a traditional button-up style, debuted in 1983 and featured player numbers on the front with script "Royals" on the chest replacing the block "Kansas City" lettering of the original. The Royals wore this second powder blue in Toronto when clinching their second American League Championship and in St. Louis during their magical run to the 1985 World Series title. The Royals and Expos were the last Major League clubs to wear powder blue when the color was retired following the 1991 season.

The Royals original uniforms were flannel (home whites and road grays) and were worn during the first four seasons (1969-72), all played at Municipal Stadium. Both home and road uniforms sported a blue script on the chest; "Royals" at home and "Kansas City" on the road.

In 1972, the lettering on the front of both uniforms was changed to block capital letters. The team switched to knit uniforms with the move to Royals Stadium in 1973. The knits featured pullover V-Neck tops and trousers without belts, while the road uniforms were powder blue for the first time.

The third change came in time for the 1978 campaign, when the club added the players' last name to the back of the uniform tops. (continued on next page)

NEW. BLUE. TRADITION.

In 1983, the Royals switched back to the tops featuring a button front and added belts to the trousers. That same season, the club changed from "Kansas City" block lettering on the front of the road tops to "Royals" and added the players' numbers to the front of the tops for the first time.

In 1992, the powder blue road uniforms were retired (until 2008) in favor of traditional gray.

2002 saw the Royals add a new black home and road alternate jersey, a new gray, sleeveless road jersey and added black trim in the white home jersey and alternate blue home jersey.

The Royals found their roots in 2006, removing the sleeveless look and bringing back the simple home white tops with the "Royals" script across the chest. On the gray road uniforms, "Kansas City" was changed from block back to script, as they were in the Royals inaugural season.

ABOUT THE COVER

ROYALS TO CREATE "A MODERN CLASSIC"

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 36th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2008. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Hosting 62,182,143 baseball fans since 1973, "The K", with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

Now, after years of planning and design, the Royals have begun the construction phase on the exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark. Fans will enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that will touch each and every fan entering the park.

Opening Day 2009, Kauffman Stadium will re-establish its place among the premier sports venues in the world! The enhanced design focuses on preserving the most revered attributes of the Stadium, which will continue to boast some of the best sightlines in Major League Baseball. Entry ways will be expanded and refurbished; concourses will be widened to improve the flow of fans throughout the Stadium; many new concession options will be available; and the Outfield Plaza, a vibrant entertainment zone, will complete a 360-degree experience within the gates.

The new Kauffman Stadium promises to be a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, it is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 All-Star Game, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and seven World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 385 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at 8 feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Ewing M. Kauffman

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and was one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on Aug. 1, 1993.

Striving to Make Kansas City a Better Place

The Kansas City Royals, striving to be a model organization both on and off the field, dedicate countless hours each year to civic and charitable endeavors in an effort to enhance the quality of life for area residents.

Throughout the years, the Royals have developed multiple programs that reach several facets of the community. Dedicated to addressing the needs of children, the Royals work in cooperation with notable organizations such as the Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City, Operation Blessing and The Dream Factory to create opportunities for the area's youth that otherwise would not exist. Calling on Royals players, coaches, alumni and front office personnel, the Royals stay heavily involved with the community's youth by hosting and participating in youth baseball clinics, school assemblies, hospital visits and autograph sessions. Perfect Attendance Days, Reviving Baseball in the Inner City (RBI) and School Day at The K with WDAF-TV are just some of the programs used to help teach young Royals fans important life skills and emphasize the value of education.

Beyond the commitment to education, the Royals also use many programs to build a strong presence across the Midwest, including the Royals Caravans, the annual Welcome Home Luncheon, Military Appreciation Day and the Speaker's Bureau. The Royals also created a new tradition for fans in January 2008 with the success of the Royals FanFest, which in its inaugural year raised more than $55,000 for Royals Charities. The Royals are always searching for new ways to merge success on the field with the success in the community.

The Royals continue to honor the memory of the late Buck O'Neil, who died in October 2006, with the Buck O'Neil Legacy Seat Program. Royals Charities: Going the Distance

Royals Charities is deeply committed to enhancing the lives of area residents by supporting causes and foundations working to benefit children, education and neighborhoods. Royals Charities provides support through financial donations, player involvement, Sluggerrr appearances, volunteering, and in-kind support including memorabilia, tickets and publicity.

Under the leadership of the Glass family, Royals Charities has donated more than $2.6 million since its inception in 2001.

This season, Royals Charities is excited to partner with the Ali Kemp Education Foundation to bring T.A.K.E. DEFENSE Training to Kauffman Stadium in an effort to help raise safety and awareness for women of all ages. Royals Charities will also host the "Diamond of Dreams: Take the field for The Dream Factory" event on Thursday, June 26. The Greater Kansas City Chapter of the Dream Factory started in 1985 and helps to grant the dreams of nearly 200 seriously or chronically ill children from the Greater Kansas City area annually. The Royals, who have been active partners with The Dream Factory for more than 15 years, are excited to turn more dreams into reality.

CHAIRMAN/OWNER

DAVID GLASS

David Glass enters his ninth season as Owner and Chief Executive Officer of the Kansas City Royals. In 1993, Glass was appointed interim chairman and Chief Executive Officer upon the death of Ewing Kauffman and in April, 2000, his family acquired the Royals organization, where he continues to serve in the same capacity.

55 RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

GIL MECHE

Height: 6-3 • Weight: 220 • Bats/Throws: R/R
Resides: Kansas City, Mo. • Birthdate (Age): Sept. 8, 1978 (29)
Birthplace: Lafayette, La. • Contract Status: Signed through 2011
M.L. Service: 7 years, 29 days • Acquired: Major League free agent, Dec. 8, 2006

2007

- Had an All-Star first season with KC and was named Royals Pitcher of the Year, setting career highs in starts (34), innings (216), ERA (3.67) and quality starts (23)...equaled his previous career high with 156 strikeouts (also 2006)...he tied for the league-lead in starts and finished eighth in innings.
- Selected to his first A.L. All-Star team, but did not pitch.
- His 3.67 ERA was the best by a Kansas City starting pitcher since Kevin Appier posted a 3.40 ERA in 1997 while his 23 quality starts tied for the 14th-best mark in a Royals uniform and the most since 1993.
- Posted just a 9-13 record due mostly to the worst run support in the American League (3.92 runs/9 innings) and the fourth-worst support in baseball... the Royals scored 12 runs for him while he was on the mound in his 13 losses.
- Lasted at least 7 innings in 15 of his 34 starts and at least 6 innings in 27 of the 34.
- Named Royals Pitcher of the Month for April.
- Meche became the 18th different pitcher to start Opening Day for the Royals when he toed the rubber on April 2 against the Red Sox...he was also sixth consecutive different pitcher to start the opener for Kansas City dating to 2002...he earned a 7-1 win...his 7.1 innings were the most by a KC starter on Opening Day since Bret Saberhagen went 8.0 innings in a 5-3 loss to Toronto on April 4, 1988.

- Through 9 starts, Meche's 1.91 ERA was tied for the 4th-best mark among Royals pitchers to begin a season and tied for the second-best mark to begin a Royals career...only Bret Saberhagen (1.66 in 1987), Kevin Appier (1.76 in 1992) and Larry Gura (1.86 in 1980) have started a season with a better ERA.
- Lost 5 straight starts from May 19 to June 9 before winning 4 straight decisions over a 7-start period from June 15 to July 20...lost 6 straight decisions in a 9-start span from July 25 to Sept. 9.
- Did not allow more than 3 runs in any of his final 10 starts, recording a 2.97 ERA over that span.
- Recorded his fifth career complete game in a 3-2 loss at Baltimore on Sept. 24.

2006

- Reached double-digit wins for the third time in his 6 Major League seasons.
- Had 15 quality starts, 2nd on the Mariners, and allowed 2 runs or less 14 times and 3 earned runs or less in 21 of 32 starts...Seattle went 18-14 in his 32 starts.
- Hitters recorded just a .238 (40-168) average with runners in scoring position against him.
- Won a career-best 5-straight decisions from June 5-July 5...was 5-0 over 9 starts with a 2.65 ERA (57.2 IP, 17 ER).
- Recorded his fourth-career complete game in an 8-1 win on June 17 vs. San Francisco.

2005

- Made 26 starts despite a stint on D.L. from Aug. 20-Sept. 16 with left knee patellar tendinitis.
- One of 3 pitchers in the Majors with 4 wins in Interleague play.
- Went exactly a year between road losses before losing on May 27 at Tampa Bay...last loss on the road was May 27, 2004, at Cleveland, a span of 9-straight starts without a loss.

- Had 13 consecutive decisions from May 15-July 23, going 8-5 over that span.
- Had his best start of the season on June 14 vs. Philadelphia in a 3-1 win...tossed 8.0 innings, allowing just 1 run on 3 hits and threw a season-high 119 pitches.
- Went 4-2 with a 3.89 ERA (34.2 IP, 15 ER) in 6 June starts, his most wins in a month since May, 2003.

2004

- Opened the season with the Mariners...made 10 starts for Tacoma from June 6-July 25.
- Recorded his first career 9-inning complete-game shutout on Sept. 12 vs. Boston in a 2-0 Mariners win...allowed just 5 hits and 1 walk while striking out 4 in the route-going performance.

2003

- Spent his first full-season in the Majors...named Sporting News Comeback Player of the Year.
- Ranked among the league-leaders with a 3.31 home ERA (10th).
- Was 1 of 5 pitchers to help Seattle tie a Major League record by using only 5 starters all season.
- Became the first pitcher in baseball since 1953 (Whitey Ford) to win at least 15 games after not appearing in the Majors the previous 2 seasons...missed all of the 2001 season and a majority of the 2002 season rehabbing from arthroscopic surgery on his right shoulder.

Birthplace: Bonao, Dominican Republic • Contract Status: Signed through 2008
M.L. Service: 2 years, 121 days • Acquired: Waivers from Los Angeles (AL), Nov. 21, 2005

AGAINST THE CENTRAL: Kansas City went 29-43 vs. American League Central Division opponents (15-21 at home, 14-22 on the road)... the Royals dropped the season series against the A.L. Central champion Cleveland Indians (7-11), the Chicago White Sox (6-12) and the 2006 A.L. Champion Detroit Tigers (7-11)...Kansas City was able to split the 18 games played against the Minnesota Twins.

THE REST OF THE LEAGUE: The Royals played well against the four opponents from the A.L. West, but struggled against the A.L. East...KC was 11-26 against Eastern division foes, going 0-7 against Baltimore, 3-3 against Boston, 1-9 against New York, 4-3 against Tampa Bay and 3-4 against Toronto...the Royals won the season series from three of the four West opponents, handling the champion Angels (5-2), Oakland (6-4) and Texas (5-4) while dropping 6 of the 9 games played against the Mariners.

INTERLEAGUE GAMES: For the second straight season, the Royals went 10-8 against N.L. opponents, marking their 3rd winning Interleague season since play began in 1997 (also 9-7 in 1998)...the Royals are 29-25 against the Senior Circuit the last 3 seasons...the Royals now have a 86-107 record since Interleague play began... Kansas City won the series at the N.L. champs Colorado (2-1) and at home against the N.L. East champ Phillies (2-1) and Marlins (2-1)...the Royals dropped 2 of 3 at Milwaukee...KC matched up 6 times with its in-state rival Cardinals, beating the Cardinals 2 of 3 at Kauffman Stadium before dropping 2 of 3 at the new Busch...the Royals hit .290 and scored 114 runs (6.3/game) during Interleague play...Alex Gordon and David DeJesus led the way with averages of .361 and .342, respectively...Mark Teahen drove in 16 runs in 17 games.

HEATED UP DURING SUMMER MONTHS: Beginning with an 11-1 win over Chicago in a Sunday afternoon game on May 13, the Royals rolled up a 51-49 record over the next 100 games through Sept. 3...the stretch included the Royals posting winning months in both June (15-12) and July (13-12)...the 51 wins were third-most in the division, behind Cleveland's 58 and Minnesota's 52...over the three and a half month span, the Royals hit .271 and averaged 4.89 runs per game (489 total runs)...the pitching staff stepped up as well, posting a 4.30 overall ERA with the bullpen coming in with a spectacular 3.34 mark.

SEPTEMBER STRUGGLES: Sitting at 62-75 and being 51-49 over their last 100 games, the Royals looked on Sept. 4 to be finishing the season strong...but a tough 7-18 closing stretch, including a season-long 7-game losing streak from Sept. 4-11, wrapped the season up in disappointing fashion...the tough stretch allowed the White Sox to pass KC in the standings, as the Royals finished in fifth place in the A.L. Central for the fourth straight season.

WINNING MONTHS: After experiencing 22 consecutive losing months, dating to a 15-11 mark in July of 2003, the Royals posted winning records in both June and July of 2007...KC was 15-12 in June, outscoring their opponents 154-117 with the pitching staff recording a 4.00 ERA...the Royals followed that up with a 13-12 month of July.

THE OFFENSE: The Royals ranked 11th out of 14 clubs in the American League with a .261 team batting average, 10 points lower than the club's 2006 mark of .271...KC scored 706 runs (4.36 per game), down from 757 runs a season ago (4.67 per game)...John Buck led the club with 18 home runs, the same number Mark Teahen led the squad with in 2006...Emil Brown paced the team in RBI (62) for the third straight season...the Royals batted .259 in 88 games prior to the All-Star break with 402 runs scored (4.6/game)...KC then batted .264 in 74 games in the 2nd half of the season with 304 runs scored (4.1/game).

PITCHING: The Royals pitching staff made dramatic improvements in 2007, jumping from dead-last in the league in 2006 to finish seventh with a 4.48 ERA...the Royals 4.88 starters ERA ranked 11th in the league, but the bullpen's strong 3.85 ERA was 6th...the Royals saved 36 of 54 opportunities, good for 66.7%, the best save percentage since the 1998 Royals saved 74.2 of save opportunities...Brian Bannister led the club with 12 wins, most by a KC hurler since Paul Byrd picked up 17 victories in 2002.

MOUND IMPROVMENT IMPRESSIVE: Kansas City hurlers improved their team ERA by the whopping mark of 1.17 from 2006 (5.65) to 2007 (4.48)...the improvement was the best turnaround in franchise history and the fourth-best in baseball since the beginning of the 1998 season...only the 2005 White Sox (1.30 improvement), 2001 Cubs (1.22) and 2005 Indians (1.20) were able to improve upon their team season ERA more than the 2007 Royals...just 6 squads in the past 10 seasons have been able to improve their ERA by over a run per game.
ERA BEST IN OVER A DECADE: The Royals recorded a 4.48 ERA in 2007, the best mark for the franchise since 1994 when the posted a 4.23 ERA in the strike-shortened season...in a non strike-shortened season, KC recorded a 4.04 ERA in 1993.

FIELDING: The Royals ranked 11th in the AL with a .982 fielding percentage, the seventh-best percentage in the 39-year history of the Royals...the 106 errors are the 8th-fewest a Royals team has committed in a season...Tony Pena Jr. committed 23 errors at shortstop, but just 5 at Kauffman Stadium, recording a .986 fielding pct., good for the fourth-best fielding season by a Royals shortstop at home.

ROOKIE RECAP: The Royals had 6 players make their Major League debuts in 2007...the Royals debuts were first baseman/designated hitter Billy Butler, third baseman Alex Gordon, right handed pitchers Billy Buckner, Luke Hochevar and Joakim Soria and left-hander Neal Musser...KC used 45 players in 2007...the 2007 Opening Day active roster included 16 players who were not on the active roster at the beginning of the 2006 season.

FRESHMEN AWARDS: Royals rookies Brian Bannister and Billy Butler, the "B & B Boys", took home three consecutive A.L. Rookie of the Month awards from June through August...Bannister picked up the June award, going 5-1 with a 2.75 ERA in 6 starts...Butler followed Banny with the award in July, hitting .341 with 3 home runs and 24 RBI in 24 games...Bannister finished off the run by earning his second award in August, going 4-1 with a 2.90 ERA in 6 starts...prior to the 2007 season, the Royals had picked up just one A.L. Rookie of the Month, Angel Berroa in July of 2003.

GORDON NOT OVERSHADOWED: Royals third baseman Alex Gordon was certainly not overshadowed by his fellow rookies in 2007...after struggling to a .173 start with 3 homers and 8 RBI through his first 53 games, Gordon rebounded to hit .285 with 12 home runs and 52 RBI in his final 98 games...Gordon compared favorably to all A.L. rookies in most offensive categories, including extra-base hits (55, 1st), home runs (15, 2nd), RBI (60, 3rd), doubles (36, 3rd), triples (4, 3rd), stolen bases (14, 3rd) and total bases (223, 3rd)...Gordon's 36 doubles led the team and set a new Royals rookie record while his 55 extra-base hits fell one shy of tying Kevin Seitzer and Carlos Beltran's Royals rookie record...he finished in the top 10 among rookie seasons with the Royals in nearly every category...defensively, Gordon committed 8 errors in his first 35 games before righting the ship to post a .973 fielding percentage the remainder of the season, good for third-best in the American League.

WELCOME TO KC, MR. MECHE: Prized free agent Gil Meche had a very solid first season in Royal blue after signing a 5-year deal prior to the 2007 season...due to the worst run support in the American League (3.92 runs per nine innings), Meche was only able to post a 9-13 record with the Royals scoring a total of 12 runs in his 13 losses while he was on the mound...the KC workhorse and staff leader set career bests with a 3.67 ERA, 34 starts, 216 innings and equaled his career high with 156 strikeouts...he tied for first in the A.L. in starts and finished eighth in innings pitched...his 3.67 ERA was the best by a Kansas City starting pitcher since Kevin Appier posted a 3.40 ERA in 1997 while his 23 quality starts tied for the 14th-best mark and the most since 1993.

BANNISTER, TAKE TWO: Kansas City saw the return of another Bannister on the mound, as Brian Bannister, the son of Floyd, joined the Royals in the off season and became one of the best rookie pitchers in both the A.L. and Royals history...Bannister, despite struggling down the stretch, went 12-9 with a 3.87 ERA in 27 starts... his ERA ranked fourth among rookies in the A.L. while his wins were second...he also led all A.L. rookies in winning percentage (.571) and finished third with 165 innings...his 3.87 ERA was seventh-best all-time among Royals rookies and the best since Kevin Appier recorded a KC rookie-record 2.76 ERA in 1990.

EXCEPTION TO THE RULE 5: Joakim Soria, the Royals 2006 Rule 5 Draft selection, was one of the most pleasant surprises of 2007...the Mexican right-hander was 2-3 with a team-high 17 saves and a 2.48 ERA in 62 games...among all Royals rookies with at least 65 innings, his 2.48 ERA was the best in franchise history...the 17 saves led all Major League rookies by 12 and his ERA was third-best among all rookie pitchers...opponents hit just .187 against him, as he struck out 75 in just 69 innings...Soria was named Royals Pitcher of the Month for September.

West champion Angels from June 25-27 in Anaheim and then taking a trio from Texas at home from July 27-29...KC was swept 7 times, including a 4-game sweep at the hands of the Orioles, which covered a span of six months because of a rainout...Baltimore took 3 in mid-April before the finale was rained out...the Orioles eventually completed the sweep in a makeup game on Sept. 24.

Esteban German, who hit .389 as a pinch hitter in 2007, hit .091 (2-for-22) in 2007...Ross Gload and Mark Grudzielanek homered in a pinch hitting role...the homer for Grudzielanek, which came on Sept. 24 in Baltimore, was his first in 26 at bats as a pinch hitter.

ALL-STAR: Gil Meche, in his first season in a KC uniform, was named to the 2007 All-Star Team, his 1st All-Star selection...the then 28-year-old right-hander had just a 5-6 record at the All-Star break, but recorded a solid 3.54 ERA for the Royals...Meche won on Opening Day against the Red Sox, 7-1, on April 2...he recorded 8 quality starts through his first 9 outings on his way to a career-high 23, the most by a Royals hurler since Kevin Appier and David Cone had 29 and 24, respectively, in 1993...Meche did not appear in the All-Star Game.

George Brett - #5

Third Baseman, 1973-1993

George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest baseball players to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98 percent of the votes, the fifth-highest mark in history. He had his number retired by the Royals May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in 3 decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the A.L. career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.V., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a 3 games to 1 deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with 3 doubles, 1 triple, 1 home run and 4 RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

He culminated his career with his 3,000th hit on Sept. 30, 1992 (pictured left). Overall, he guided the Royals to seven post-seasons and two World Series. During his 21-year career with the Royals, Kansas City posted 15 winning seasons, including 8 seasons with at least 90 wins.

Frank White - #20

Second Baseman, 1973-1990

Career Honors

- Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- Named to 5 All-Star games
- Won 8 Rawlings Gold Gloves, including 6 straight from 1977-82
- Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- Played in 7 postseasons and 2 World Series
- Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning 8 Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Gold Glove award 6 straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just 4 errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team 5 times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranks seventh all-time in career fielding percentage among second basemen, was named the Royals Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in 3 runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the Royals 1985 World Series, White led all players with 6 RBI, hitting 3 doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a 3 games to 1 deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The Royals first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top 5 in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases, and extra base hits. He hit 3 inside-the park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

Dick Howser - #10

Manager, 1981-1987

Career Honors

- Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- Ranks 2nd in Royals history with 404 wins as Royals manager
- Directed Royals to 3 division titles
- Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for 3rd-most wins in franchise history
- ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- Named to 1961 All-Star Team

Dick Howser managed the Royals from Aug. 31, 1981 to Feb. 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won 3 division titles and a World Championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the 1st number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while guiding the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 edition was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a 6th-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an 8-year Major League playing career.

A Royal Welcome

Following the World Championship season of 1985, the Royals traveled to Washington, D.C. to meet with President Ronald Reagan at the White House.

President Reagan congratulated the team for winning the World Series in dramatic come-from-behind fashion and said, "You proved to America what a never-say-die spirit can do." During the ceremony that was held in the White House Rose Garden, Reagan shook hands with members of the team.

Royals manager Dick Howser presented the president with a Royals cap and warmup jacket as well as a baseball bat. After receiving the Royals gear, a smiling Reagan said, "I can't wait to get up to Capitol Hill."

Remembering the Royals Academy

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on Aug. 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director Syd Thrift (and future Yankees General Manager) was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

KANSAS CITY BASEBALL HISTORY

53 Years of Major League Baseball in KC

2005 marked the 50th anniversary of the 1st American League game played in Kansas City. Left-handed pitcher Alex Kellner and the Athletics handed Ned Garver and the Detroit Tigers a 6-2 loss in the A's KC debut. Outfielder Bill Wilson hit the 1st home run in Kansas City A's history with a shot in the 8th inning. Pre-game festivities included a ceremonial first pitch by Kansas City native and former president Harry Truman.

The A's played all their games at Municipal Stadium, sharing the facility with the Kansas City Chiefs football team. The stadium, located and 22nd and Brooklyn, opened July 3, 1923 and was originally named Muehlebach Field and also housed the Kansas City Monarchs and Kansas City Blues (minor league). A pair of short-lived football franchises, The Kansas City Blues (1924) and Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26) also played at the stadium. The Royals used the stadium from 1969-72.

1973 ALL-STAR GAME - ROYALS STADIUM

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the 1st All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with 2 runs in the top of the 3rd and also scored in the 4th, 5th and 6th innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing 2 hits and 1 ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a 2-run homer in the 5th inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the 4th inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers, including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few. The game also featured 3 Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas, and 1 future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

Kauffman Stadium (then Royals Stadium) was the host of the 1973 All-Star Game which featured 15 future Hall of Famers.

2007 Notes: The Orioles used dominant pitching to sweep the season series from the Royals, 7-0...the whitewashing marked the first time since 2002 (7-0) that the O's failed to drop a game to KC and just the third time ever...Baltimore has now won the season series four straight seasons, posting a 22-6 mark over that span...the Royals hit just .196 (43-for-219) in the 7-game series, posting a sub-.200 average in a season series of more than 3 games for the first time since hitting .189 (36-for-190) in 6 games against the Cardinals in 2002...Baltimore swept an abbreviated 3-game series from April 12-14, as Sunday's finale on April 15 was rained out and rescheduled for Sept. 24...the Royals followed that series up with a late May series in which they were held to a total of 3 runs in a 3-game sweep... the 3 losses at home meant KC failed to post a winning record at Kauffman Stadium for the 18th time in the last 19 seasons (32-52)... after 38 seasons, the Royals are 175-233 all-time against the Orioles, including 97-108 at home and 78-125 in Baltimore, including 24-45 in 16 seasons at Camden Yards.

Mark Teahen celebrated playing against his "hometown" team, hitting .370 with a home run and 5 RBI...Esteban German gave KC its first win of the season over the Angels with a 3-run homer on May 2, erasing a 1-0 deficit...Billy Butler crushed his first Major League home run off Ervin Santana on June 26 in Anaheim...De La Rosa, David Riske, Joakim Soria and Octavio Dotel combined on a 10-hit shutout in the season series finale on June 27...the season win allowed the Royals to reclaim the all-time lead over the Angels, 251-248...the home advantage is flip-flopped as the Royals own a 134-122 edge in Anaheim while the Angels possess a 126-117 edge in KC.

2007 Notes: The Royals took 6 of the 10 meetings with the Athletics, snapping an 8-year winless drought in the season series...Kansas City dropped its only home series of the season, losing 2 of 3 from May 8-10, including allowing a season-high 17 runs in the afternoon finale...but the Royals struck back by taking 5 of the 7 games at McAfee Coliseum, winning 4 straight from May 16 to Aug. 18...reliever Jimmy Gobble earned 3 wins against Oakland as the Royals held on for three 1-run victories...Brian Bannister tossed the team's first complete game of the season on Aug. 17 in a 9-2 win...the win also propelled the Royals out of last place for the first time since early April...John Buck hit a game-winning 2-run homer on May 14 and then followed that up with a home run the next night that sparked a comeback...Gil Meche took a pair of no decisions, but allowed just 1 earned run in 13 innings in 2 starts that eventually would be won by the Royals...KC is just 228-276 against the A's all-time, their most losses against any team outside of the A.L. Central, but hold a slim 128-125 edge at home, including 112-105 at Kauffman Stadium.

Gilbert De La Vara saved 7 games and had a 0.82 ERA before a late June promotion to Wichita...Jose Duarte earned Player of the Year honors...Duarte led the league in hits and his 34 stolen bases was 2nd among Royals farmhands... Colby Curry enters his third season with the Royals. He joined the organization in 2006 as a marketing intern and moved to the media relations department later that year. He was named to his current position in June of 2007. Curry is involved with game information, Royals publications, MLB broadcasting correspondence, and the club's historical archiving project.

The Illinois native earned magna cum laude honors in 2002 from Western Illinois University, where he graduated with a degree in communications and broadcasting. He received a MBA from Willamette University in Salem, Ore., in 2005. While at Willamette, he worked in the athletic department and interned with the Portland Trail Blazers.

Curry enjoys participating in Royals community events, including Christmas in October, the City Union Mission Thanksgiving dinner, and Operation Blessing. He resides in Independence, Mo.

The Royals Autograph Policy states that credentialed members of the media are prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment from players AT ALL TIMES. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and could bar future use.

The Press Box is located on level 4 at Kauffman Stadium. Space is available only for members of the working media ON ASSIGNMENT ONLY. The lower level is reserved for writers and radio broadcasters. The upper level is divided into individual broadcast booths for live coverage by television networks. Seats in the lower level will be assigned with members of the Kansas City BBWAA in the front row. Other media will be assigned to row 2 and other auxillary locations.

Wireless Internet Access is available in the main press box free of charge. The network is named "ROYALS-Press Box". Please contact a Royals Media Relations member if you are having trouble connecting.

The Press Room is located adjacent to the press box for a pregame meal ($9.00 charge) and refreshments and is open for the media with appropriate credentials approximately 2 hours prior to the game and 2 hours and 30 minutes prior to the game when Fox Sports Net - Kansas City televises the contest. Complete NOTES, STATISTICAL INFORMATION and LINEUPS are available approximately 3 hours prior to the game at security desk located outside of the Press Club.

Interview periods are arranged prior to and following Royals games through the Royals Media Relations Department.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before and after batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players specific game preparations. Manager Trey Hillman is available to the media before games in the Royals dugout, usually around 4:15 p.m. prior to 7:10 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Media Relations Department. We request that reporters and broadcasters leave the field and dugout area at the conclusion of batting practice and that photographers report to their assigned photo positions.

Manager Postgame: The Royals will conduct a postgame interview with the manager in the interview room on Level 1 immediately following each Royals home game. The postgame interview room is specifically designed for, but not limited to, the electronic media. This is the only area where the electronic media may interview the manager postgame. THERE WILL BE NO POSTGAME INTERVIEWS ALLOWED IN THE MANAGER'S OFFICE. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers should remain in foul territory in the area behind the first and third base bags on the dirt warning track. Photographers should assume their assigned positions at the conclusion of batting practice.

The Royals Clubhouse will be open to the media with clubhouse credentials for a period of 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour prior to the game. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance. For postgame interviews, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Royals clubhouse will be closed between games of a doubleheader. There will be occasions when the Royals may request the clubhouse be cleared for team meetings and we ask your cooperation at these times. The players lounge, training room, coaches office adjacent to manager's office and conditioning areas are closed to everyone except players and Royals officials. The dugout is off limits in accordance with American League rules during the game to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and certain club officials. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse. Television cameras are only permitted to shoot interviews.

Live Transmissions are permitted by non-rightsholders from Kauffman Stadium prior to and after every game. Live television reports by non-rightsholders are prohibited while the rightsholder is on the air or the games is in progress. Radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports and allowed to give inning or half inning score updates. At no time can these correspondents file reports once play is under way. Any violation of these policies will result in immediate revocation of credentials.

The use of Cellular Phones, including text messaging is prohibited on the field and in either clubhouse. The only time a radio correspondent can use a cellular phone for an interview would be in either dugout after receiving advance permission form the player or staff member. Any other telephone interviews must be arranged through the Royals Media Relations Department.

ROYALS ON FOX SPORTS NET-KANSAS CITY

Fox Sports Net (FSN) announced on Jan. 17, 2008 the launch of a new regional sports network to better serve its viewers in the Kansas City area and to provide greater local coverage of Kansas City Royals baseball this coming season. The network was branded FSN Kansas City and will televise programming geared to fans in the Kansas City area, as well as those in nearby communities in Missouri and Kansas. Such programming will include Royals baseball, Big 12 Conference football from the University of Missouri, University of Kansas, and Kansas State University, as well as additional Big 12 Conference sports and more.

"We're proud to announce the launch of FSN Kansas City," said Jack Donovan, FSN Kansas City General Manager and Senior Vice President. "This network will reflect our role as the new exclusive home for Royals baseball, as well as our increased emphasis on localism and creating content that resonates with our Kansas City audience."

FSN Kansas City formally launched at the beginning of the 2008 baseball season. The first program produced by FSN Kansas City was a special from the inaugural Royals Fanfest that debuted on Jan. 24.

FSN Kansas City programming will air on the same channel on which FSN Midwest programming currently airs.

FSN Kansas City is entering the first season of a new, long-term agreement as the exclusive television home of Kansas City Royals baseball. FSN Kansas City will provide fans with the most expansive Royals coverage in history, televising 140 regular season games and two spring training contests in 2008 with Ryan Lefebvre and Paul Splittorff teaming up to call the action. Royals Hall of Famer Frank White will also call 20 games during the 2008 season. Every regular season telecast will be surrounded by a pregame and postgame show titled Royals Live hosted by Joel Goldberg, and for the first time select Royals games will be produced in High Definition. FSN Kansas City will air more than 200 live events of local interest in 2008.

FSN's regional networks are the nation's leading provider of local sports. FSN's owned-and-operated networks serve as the cable and satellite TV home to nearly two-thirds of all NBA, MLB, and NHL franchises in the U.S., producing close to 5,000 live, mostly local, events each year, including more than 1200 in high definition.

The FSN Kansas City team of (L-R) Ryan Lefebvre, Paul Splittorff and Joel Goldberg will broadcast a Royals record 142 games in 2008.

ROYALS BROADCAST TEAM

Denny Matthews, Announcer

Denny Matthews, the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner, was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He became a member of the Royals Hall of Fame in August of 2004 and will celebrate his 40th season behind the microphone for the club in 2008. The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in five different decades. Denny is a 2005 Missouri Sports Hall of Fame selection.

Matthews is just one of six announcers in the history of MLB to spend an entire career with just one team and log at least 35 consecutive seasons behind the microphone. He joins Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles, 57), Bob Prince (Pittsburgh, 48), Jack Buck (St. Louis, 47), Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles, 45) and Joe Nuxhall (Cincinnati, 39) as the only broadcasters to accomplish the feat.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his 39 years with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside Bud Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-1998 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Bob Davis will serve as Denny's new partner in 2008.

The veteran broadcaster has also lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He also worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the Angels and Brewers.

Matthews is active in the Kansas City community and dedicates his time and resources to several area charities, including the SAFE program, a charity that provides families of fallen policemen, firemen and emergency workers, as well as Operation Lifesaver, a railroad crossing safety and awareness program. He is also the author the 2004 book, "Tales from the Royals Dugout" and co-author of the 1999 book "Play by Play - 25 Years of Royals on Radio."

Matthews graduated from Central Catholic High School in Bloomington, Ill., and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in August, 2001. He is a 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan where he lettered in football and baseball for 3 years and finished 8th in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965.

Prior to joining the Royals, Matthews worked for WMBD-TV and radio and KMOX-TV. His brother, Mike, is the radio analyst for Illinois State University basketball.

Matthews, an avid collector of sports publications, enjoys playing golf and hockey. He resides in Leawood, Kan.

Hall of Fame broadcaster Denny Matthews signed autographs at the Royals FanFest in January, 2008

Bob Davis, Announcer

Bob Davis, an 11-time winner of the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year award, enters his 12th season with the Royals and his first as a voice on the Royals Radio Network. In addition to his work with the Royals, Davis has been the voice of the Kansas Jayhawks for the past 24 years. Davis was inducted into the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2006.

Prior to his stint with the Jayhawks, Davis spent 16 years announcing Fort Hays State University games, earning a spot in the school's Athletic Hall of Fame. He has also been the radio voice for the NCAA Women's Final Four Basketball Championships.

A native of Topeka, Davis graduated from Topeka West High School and Washburn University. He resides in Lawrence, Kan., with his wife, Linda. The couple has one son, Steven, who will serve as the play-by-play voice of the Royals Double-A affiliate in Northwest Arkansas in 2008.

Steve Stewart, Announcer

Steve Stewart, entering his 17th season as a baseball broadcaster and ninth in the Major Leagues, joins the Royals broadcast team in 2008 as the on-site pre and post-game host for every game on the Royals Radio Network.
